2002 LANCASTER COUNTY FAIR

More than 40,000 people attended this year's Lancaster County Fair, almost doubling expectations! The entire fair was a 4-H Centennial Celebration with the Centennial honored at, and incorporated into, most 4-H activities and events. The recently completed Exhibit Hall proved to be a welcome (and "cool") addition to the fair. A special thanks to all the dedicated volunteers who make this community event possible!

This poster showcasing green earned purple.

The Bicycle Contest included a bike inspection which taught the importance of equipment safety.

A first year dairy exhibitor leads the way.

Patriotic was "in" at this year's Style Revue.

4-H Teen Council members did free face painting.

Pleasure Driving in the Miniature Horse Show.

This team demonstration mixed how-to's with nutrition facts and mixer safety during their fruit smoothie demonstration.

Hare grooming was an integral part of the rabbit show.

Youth recorded public service announcements at the Clover Kids PSA workshop.
