Lancaster County 4-H Horse Registration Form

Instructions

1. This entry form is due to the Lancaster County Extension Office no later than Friday, July 8, 2005. No late entries will be accepted. A pre-fair briefing is set for Sunday, July 31, 2 p.m. at the Pavilion III. All 4-H horse project members and parents are encouraged to attend.

2. Refer to the Lancaster County Fair Book, for detailed information regarding each horse event.

3. You may enter any six classes from the eligible events for a premium to be paid according to the ribbon placing. An event is a specific activity of the show; while a class is a subdivision of an event according to age or other prerequisites. You may also enter the horse judging contest as an additional premium event.

4. The rules of the All-Around Champion individual are listed under the Wittstruck Memorial Award. You may select by making a check for award points in the right column. Showmanship or groom and care must be ONE of the six selections. The exhibitor receiving the most points according to these rules will be awarded the Wittstruck Memorial Trophy during the Horse Achievement Night, Tuesday, Sept 27 at 6:30 p.m..

5. The Lancaster County Fair 4-H horse Show will be held in the Main Arena and Countryman Arena, Lancaster Event Center, 84th & Havelock. Horses will be stalled in Pavilion II.

Any further questions and/or comments can be directed to Marty at 441-7180.
