

October 2023

Dear 4-H Organizational Leader or Independent Member,

October signals the beginning of a new 4-H project year. It is time to reorganize your 4-H club with new officers and projects. Now is a good time to recruit parents and friends of 4-H as project and activity leaders. You are encouraged to involve as many adults as you need in leadership roles to meet the goals of your club.

The following items are enclosed in this packet:

- ✓ Fall Club Enrollment postcard (clubs only)
- ✓ Club Member Roster (clubs only) – Rosters from 2022–2023 year. Members need to re-enroll for 2023–2024.
- ✓ Club Treasurer’s Report (clubs only)
- ✓ 2022–2023 4-H Project List
- ✓ 4-H Award & Scholarship Information
- ✓ Community Service Award Record Form
- ✓ Nebraska 4-H Club of Excellence Summary Form (clubs only)

Dates to remember:

- November 15 • Fall Club Enrollment postcard due
- November 30 • Nebraska Associate of Fair Managers – Martha & Don Romeo scholarship application due
- January 3 • Club Treasurer’s Report due to the Extension office
- January 3 • Deadline for many 4-H award applications, including: Club of Excellence, Community Service, Diamond Clover, Annual Achievement Application, 4-H Council Leadership Award and Outstanding 4-H Member
- January 3 • Deadline for many 4-H college scholarship applications, including: 4-H Council, 4-H Teen Council, Lincoln Center Kiwanis, Dick Fleming Leadership & Communication, and Lane Community
- February 13 • 4-H Achievement Celebration

ALL 4-H MEMBERS AND LEADERS MUST RE-ENROLL FOR THE 2023–2024 4-H YEAR by going online to <https://v2.4honline.com>. See the enclosed bright green sheet IT’S TIME FOR MEMBERS AND LEADERS TO RE-ENROLL IN 4-H for more information.

Club Treasurer’s Report — Please complete and return the enclosed Club Treasurer’s Report form even if your club does not have a bank account (if your club holds money, it must have a bank account). Contact the Extension office for more information. Extension is required to obtain your treasurer’s report to keep in your club’s permanent file.

Insurance — Accident insurance is available to 4-H clubs for a nominal fee for special activities such as workshops and clinics for youth not enrolled in 4-H. Contact our office for a flyer with additional information.

Sincerely,

Tracy Anderson

Kristin Geisert

Kate Pulec

Elizabeth Thiltges