Look Who’s Hatching: Exploring Oviparous (Egg Laying) Animals with Young Children

Workshop for Preschool Teachers

Wed., March 25, 2020

6:15–8:15 p.m.
Lancaster Extension Education Center
444 Cherrycreek Road, Lincoln

Presented by Extension Educator
Jaci Foged, M.S. Ed.

Cost $10 per person.
Two DHHS approved in-service hours.

Hatching out chicks is a wonderful experience for young children. During this workshop, we will review the curriculum from Nebraska Extension, “Look Who’s Hatching,” and learn how to implement the curriculum in your program. Participants will have the opportunity to hatch chicks in their own program using an incubator on loan from Extension for an additional fee of $50.

Deadline to register:
Monday, March 16

Space is limited, so register early.

Extension is a Division of the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources at the University of Nebraska–Lincoln cooperating with the Counties and the United States Department of Agriculture.
