Wednesday, Sept. 20, 2017

10 am - 12 pm

Cost: $10 – Register by Sept. 13

Water science resources
we will have on hand for you to review and experiment with:

*Stormwater Sleuth and Running Rain educational comic book, card game and
'grab and go' activity guides.*

There may even be some POOP!

Each participant
will receive a kit
containing these resources.

Looking for new ideas and resources to use in teaching science and STEM? You can explore and experiment with resources for teaching
about water, watersheds,
ecosystems and environmental issues.
UNL Extension Educator, Katie Pekarek, will provide basic content information, state standards met and guide you in using the water science-related
"hands-on" activities.

Resources to be shared developed by the Nebraska Extension Stormwater team, Minnesota State Extension, Iowa State Extension and Penn State Extension.

Extension is a Division of the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources at the University of Nebraska–Lincoln cooperating with the Counties and the United States Department of Agriculture.
