Each year, student interns join the 4-H staff at Nebraska Extension in Lancaster County and provide much needed assistance during the summer for contests, Lancaster County Super Fair and other activities.

- Rachel Johnson assists Cole Meador in the livestock areas. Rachel just finished her second year at UNL where she is majoring in animal science with a beef emphasis and pre-veterinary option. This is her first summer as a 4-H intern. She was a 4-H member in Lancaster County for 11 years.
- Liz Loseke assists Marty Cruickshank with the horse, rabbit and poultry program areas. Liz just finished her first year at UNL where she is majoring in animal science in the pre-veterinary option with an entrepreneurship minor. This is her first year as a 4-H intern. She was a 4-H member in Platte County for 11 years.
- Caitlyn Anderson assists Tracy Anderson with Clover College, Super Fair static exhibits and contests. Caitlyn just finished her second year at the University of Nebraska at Kearney where she is majoring in elementary education with a minor in elementary art education. This is her first summer as a 4-H intern. Caitlyn was a 4-H member in Lancaster County for 8 years.

Final Level Testing Before Super Fair
Tuesday, June 30 will be the last date to test in order to ride in the 2015 Lancaster County Super Fair. The 4-H horsemanship level group testing will take place starting 5:30 p.m. at the Lancaster Event Center in Pavilion 4 – Amy Countryman Arena. Anyone wishing to test must sign up by June 23 by contacting Marty at mcruickshank2@unl.edu or 402-441-7180. All written level requirements must be completed and submitted to Marty Cruickshank before the riding can take place.

State Fair 4-H Horse Show Form Due July 1
All Lancaster County Super Fair 4-H horse entry forms are due in the Extension office by Wednesday, July 1, or postmarked by July 1. No late entries will be accepted. Entry forms are available online at http://lancaster.unl.edu/4hFair and at the Extension office.

Kath Conroy, a 4-H clothing super-

Donated Sewing Machine To Go to a 4-H'er
This is the seventh year Kath Conroy, a 4-H clothing super-intendent, and her husband, Mike, have donated a brand new sewing machine to one Lancaster County 4-H member. A 4-H'ers must submit a paper describing the clothing projects they have done in the past and plan to do in the future. Kath explains why they should be the youth to receive it. Send papers by Monday, July 6 to Nebraska Extension in Lancaster County, 444 Cherry Creek Road, Ste A, Lincoln, NE 68528.

"Fun with Healthy Food!" Workshop, July 10
All youth ages 8 and up are invited to participate in a "Fun with Healthy Food!" 4-H workshop on Friday, July 10, 8:30 a.m.–4:30 p.m. at the Lancaster Extension Education Center, 444 Cherry Creek Rd, Lincoln, 10 a.m. to 12 noon in Room A. There will be a fee of $1 per rabbit.

4-H Summer Camps Offered Through Aug. 6
It is not too late to sign up for 4-H Summer Camps which are offered through Aug. 6. With locations at Gretna and Halsey, there are nearly 50 camps spanning from half day to seven days/six nights. Many camps still have open spots! Open to all youth ages 5–18 (need not be in 4-H). A wide variety of programs are offered including: tent building/shack building courses — low initiatives, high initiatives, zip line, - - shooting sports — archery, air rifle, shot gun, .22 rifle, muzzleloader - aquatics — canoeing, fishing, tubing, kayaking, tanking, swimming - nature programming and GPS - arts, crafts, exploration, campfires, games, songs and fun! More information is online at http://lancaster.unl.edu/camp and the Extension office.

Super 4-H Horse Entry Forms Due July 1
All Lancaster County Super Fair 4-H horse entry forms are due in the Extension office by Thursday, July 1, or postmarked by July 1. No late entries will be accepted. Entry forms are available online at http://lancaster.unl.edu/4hFair and at the Extension office. Reminder — you must have passed all Walk-Trot or Level I Horsemanship requirements and have all forms turned into the Extension Office before July 1 to show at the fair.

In the live cattle events must have a level II in horsemanship. New this year, all who participate in any jumping class must have a level II. Bareback Equitation requires passing a level III. Extreme Versatility is open to all riders with a level IV and seniors with a level III. Discipline Raid requires a level III or IV — junior and senior participants only.

Rabbit Tattoo Opportunity, July 18
On Saturday, July 18, the Lancaster County 4-H Rabbit Volunteers in Program Service (VIPS) Committee is providing an opportunity for adults and youth to tattoo their rabbits. This would be an excellent time to get tattoos done for Super Fair. Each individual can open to up to 4-H'ers, non 4-H'ers and all counties. It will be held at the Lancaster Extension Education Center, 444 Cherry Creek Rd, Lincoln, 10 a.m. to 12 noon in Room A. There will be a fee of $1 per rabbit.

Health Papers
A 14-day health certificate and a Coggins Test will be required for a horse to be shown at the State 4-H Horse Expo.

Notice to Exhibitors
No 4-H horse exhibitors and/or owner shall exhibit a horse at the Fonner Park State 4-H Horse Exposition that has been given in any 4-H program or event at any given time. Parents, leaders, friends, Fonner Park and Nebraska Extension staff reserves the right to drug test any horse in any class at any given time.

The Nebraska 4-H District Horse Shows and Fonner Park State 4-H Horse Exposition are held for Nebraska 4-H horse exhibitors. Your parents, leaders, friends, Fonner Park and Nebraska Extension staff with the intent of qualifying and participating in these great horse shows. If 4-H exhibitors are physically able to exhibit their horses, they also are expected to prepare their horses for all events. Family and/or friend assistance is welcomed and expected, but warm-up riding, etc., by persons other than the exhibitor may require immediate and appropriate action by the show superintend- ent and the Nebraska 4-H Horse Advisory Committee.

Health Papers
A 14-day health certificate and a Coggins Test will be required for a horse to be shown at the State 4-H Horse Expo. If a horse is not healthy, the exhibitor should turn the horse in prior to showing. If a horse is given in a disease area, the exhibitor should turn the horse in prior to showing. If a horse is given in a disease area, the exhibitor should turn the horse in prior to showing. If a horse is given in a disease area, the exhibitor should turn the horse in prior to showing. If a horse is given in a disease area, the exhibitor should turn the horse in prior to showing. If a horse is given in a disease area, the exhibitor should turn the horse in prior to showing. If a horse is given in a disease area, the exhibitor should turn the horse in prior to showing.