Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)

» For: eligible low-income people and their families
» Each month, SNAP benefits are issued on an electronic benefit transfer (EBT) card—like a debit card. The EBT card can be used at most grocery stores, discount stores, farmers' markets and neighborhood stores to buy most food products.
» Apply for SNAP benefits and other public assistance at iServe Nebraska:
<https://iserve.nebraska.gov/>
» Questions and assistance applying, call Nebraska SNAP Outreach Hotline at 1-855-444-5556.

DOUBLE UP
FOOD BUCKS

Nebraska Double Up Food Bucks (DUFBS)

» For: SNAP/EBT card users
» When you use your EBT Card at qualifying SNAP retailers, Double Up matches your fresh fruit and vegetable purchases dollar for dollar, up to $20 a day.
» Call 402-441-6744 or visit <https://doubleupnebraska.org> to find a DUFBS location near you.

Nutrition for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC)

» For: eligible low-income pregnant or breastfeeding women, new moms, and children under 5
» WIC helps eligible families with healthy food, breastfeeding support, and nutrition and health resources.
» Call 402-471-2781 or visit <https://dhhs.ne.gov/Pages/WIC-About.aspx>

Little Free Pantries

» Pantries in neighborhoods providing food and essential items to anyone in need.
» Questions? Call 402-601-4501 or visit Little Free Pantries LNK Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/LittleFreePantriesLNK/>
